Celebration of Ganesh Chaturthi

On September 19, 2023, Kanpur Institute of Technology and Pharmacy, Hostel Society celebrated Ganesh Chaturthi, a sacred event that brought the hostel community together in devotion and unity. The ceremony was inaugurated by placing a holy statue of Lord Ganesha and reciting sacred hymns. The statue remained on the campus for five days. In the presence of the Boys' Hostel FIC, Dr. Ashish Ranjan Singh, and the Girls' Hostel FIC, Ms. Parul Potlia, students gathered daily to express their devotion to Lord Ganesha. This ritual occurred twice a day, with students singing sacred hymns in the morning and evening. The event, attended by all students, infused the atmosphere with positivity and deepened their spiritual connection, making it a resounding success. On the fifth day of this event, students immersed the holy statue of Lord Ganesha in the sacred waters of the Ganges River. This day was particularly filled with excitement, enthusiasm, and devotion as students danced and sang songs to celebrate the immersion ceremony of Lord Ganesha's statue.

ANTI-WOMEN HARASSMENT CELL

Guidelines for Women's safety

The pursuance of the women harassment at the institute hereby adopts the following procedures for determining complaints. The procedure complies with the basic principles of natural justice and fair play and has to be adhered in all the complaints.

1. Any aggrieved female (student/ staff/ faculty) may make a complaint (with/without writing) of any kind of harassment immediately or within one week from the date of incident and in case of series of incidents, within 1 month from the date of incident.
2. Any complaint received by the members should be immediately forwarded to the committee in charge and a meeting can be called for discussing the matter.
3. The committee shall discuss and decide on its jurisdiction to deal with the case and reject the complaint at primary level and no action is required to be taken. The committee will provide assistance throughout.
4. The committee may call any person to appear as a witness.
5. If the committee finds no merit in the allegations, and committee arrives at the conclusion that the allegation against the respondent is malicious or the complaint knowing to be false, it may recommended to the institute to take action against such falsification.
6. The committee ensures that all the complaints will be handled as confidentially as possible.

To prevent oneself enter into such kinds of harassment actions, there should be some important steps need to be followed:

1. Always be aware and conscious while engaging with others.
2. Be sensitive to individuals who may be offended by the verbal and non-verbal behaviours of others.
3. Pay attention to the response of others in order to avoid unintentional offense.
4. Ask yourself first if your verbal or non-verbal behaviours might have a negative impact on other co-workers.
5. If you think you are being harassed by an individual or a group, do not accept it as a joke.

As per the guidelines of AICTE, a committee has been constituted for ensuring the safety of women in the institute for the academic session 2022-23. The committee comprise of the following persons:
